

The Village Square at St. Petersburg College
Institute for Strategic Policy Solutions presents:

Medical Marijuana: Should Florida Go to Pot?

Thursday, April 17
6-8:15 p.m.

Seminole Campus Conference Center
Seminole Community Library
St. Petersburg College
9200 113th St. N, Seminole

Medical marijuana is a heated topic this election season. The Florida Supreme Court has approved a citizens' initiative petition for a referendum to legalize the use of marijuana for certain medical conditions. Join us as experts debate the pros and cons of legalizing marijuana for medical purposes.

Moderated by Craig Kopp

News anchor and host of All Things Considered,
WUSF NPR Radio

Panel:

- Ben Pollara, Campaign Manager, United for Care
- Carlton E. Turner, Former Assistant to President Reagan and Director of White House Drug Abuse Policy Office
- Bob Gualtieri, Sheriff, Pinellas County

Register now

Includes the dinner and program
$25 for Village Square members
$30 for guests
$20 for students

Seating is limited and online registration is required.

www.spcollege.edu/solutions or call 727-394-6942 for more information

Media sponsors

St. Petersburg College is an Equal Access/Equal Opportunity institution. 14-0153-03

SPC St. Petersburg
College
INSTITUTE FOR STRATEGIC
POLICY SOLUTIONS

